

There is an invisible presence as close as the air we're breathing,
There's a call to a life that's greater There's a hunger for something to believe in

Music is by permission of CCLI #818428

There's the voice of a risen Savior
And he's giving us an invitation
To the rock we can truly stand on
To a more secure foundation

Music is by permission of CCLI #818428

Are you willing to join the adventure
Are you willing to follow onward
In the steps of the risen Savior
To the life that you've always wanted

Music is by permission of CCLI #818428

This is the life he offers
This is the hope we've found he is our certain future
He is our solid ground

Music is by permission of CCLI #818428

This is the life we've chosen
This is the choice we make
This is the rock we stand on His is the strength we claim

Music is by permission of CCLI #818428

This risen Savior calls us
His invitation's clear
His door is always open
Anyone is welcome here

Music is by permission of CCLI #818428

One life on the outside is surprised by an open door
More lives given courage pulling others to solid ground Stronger ever brighter heaven's vision catching on
