

In these days of fresh surrender
We have bowed before Your throne.
We have sensed Your love so tender,
Your refreshing we have known.

Yet we sense there's something coming
Greater than we've known before.
We're so grateful for Your goodness
Still our hearts cry out for more.

We look to You, Jesus.
Revive us, our King.
Come show us Your glory,
come do a new thing!

We look to You Jesus,
Your will is our desire.
Lord, send forth Your power and fill us with Your fire!

We have heard Your call from Heaven.
Lay aside our weight and sin,
Look away from all distractions,
Run the race by grace within.

For the joy that's set before us,
By Your voice that leads our way,
We will follow to the finish,
We will see You face to face!
